A
PREFACE.

MY late position as Principal of the Eustace Miles School of Cookery for four years has resulted in numerous and oft-repeated requests from pupils for a Non-Flesh Cookery Book—hence this publication.

For nine years my husband and I have been abstainers from flesh-foods. During this time we have devoted our attention to forming NEW combinations of these foods, with special reference to their nutritive value, digestibility, tastiness, and dainty dishing up.

The measure of success that has attended our efforts is shown by the fact that we have been awarded three gold, six silver, and four bronze medals, and numerous diplomas, for Non-Flesh Cookery, at the Food and Cookery Exhibitions at the Royal Horticultural Hall, by judges who are among the best chefs in the world. Also we have been, and are, catering for and pleasing thousands of a public, well known to be critical, at Blatch's Restaurant, 50 Cannon Street, E.C.4, and elsewhere.

These 101 Best Recipes, in addition to making tasty, nourishing and economical dishes, are particularly suited for use by those contemplating a change of diet.

Proprietary articles, not being necessary, are almost entirely absent from my Recipes, with the exception of Marmite (which I have always found an excellent flavouring element) and Nutter Suet (which is quite free from water).

I have endeavoured to word my Recipes as clearly and simply as possible, in the hope that the amateur cook, as well as the professional, will be able to work from them without difficulty. As a rule the recipes in this book are intended to provide for four persons.

MARGARET BLATCH.

Deep frying is the best for cutlets, rissoles and croquettes. Care should be taken to see that the blue vapour arises from the boiling fat before the cutlets are put in, or they will absorb the fat, which so often spoils this form of cooking.

15. Nutmeat & Vegetable Pudding.

Ingredients for Pudding Crust.

6 oz. Nutter Suet.

1 lb. Flour, sifted.

1 teaspoonful of Baking Powder.

$\frac{1}{2}$ pint of Water.

Pinch of Salt.

Method.

Chop the suet up fine in the flour, mix with the baking powder and the salt, make a ball and pour in the water, gradually mix to a stiff paste, lay aside for 15 minutes before using.

For the centre of the pudding use an assortment of cooked vegetables, such as carrots, beans, lentils, turnips, tomatoes, mushrooms, &c., with diced up firm nutmeat (such as Recipes 12 and 18), or hard-boiled eggs. The assortment should be put into a basin and mixed with brown gravy, about a gill (Recipe 62), with the addition of a pinch of herbs—basil, marjoram, or thyme. Line some buttered moulds with a thin layer of dough and fill with mixture, cover with dough and a greased piece of paper, and steam or boil $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours. Turn out and serve with buttered carrots.

16. Nutmeat & Vegetable Pie.

An assortment of any cooked vegetables, such as beans, lentils, peas, turnips, carrots, celery, tomatoes or mushrooms, a good pinch of savoury herbs, and one onion finely minced and fried in 1 oz. butter or Nutter Suet. Mix this with the assorted vegetables, and add 1 gill of Béchamel Sauce (see Recipe 60). Put the mixture in a pie dish with a layer of nutmeat, roll out a piece of Scotch puff pastry (Recipe 89) $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thick about the size of the dish, cut a small $\frac{1}{2}$ inch strip to press round the edge as a foundation for the crust ; put the centre support in the pie dish and lay on the crust, trim round with a sharp knife and pinch a fancy border ; brush off the flour with a soft brush, and lightly brush with the yolk of an egg. Four pastry leaves may be laid on the top from corner to centre and brushed over with the egg. Bake for 15 minutes in a very hot oven, then turn it down, and bake for another half hour or until crust is well done.

17. Walnut Cutlets.

Ingredients :

- 4 oz. shelled Walnuts passed through a nut mill.
- 4 oz. Breadcrumbs, white or brown.
- 1 oz. Butter or Nut Margarine.
- 1 tablespoonful of grated Onion.

- 1 dessertspoonful of Flour.
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ gills of Milk.
- Pinch of ground Mace, Pepper and Salt.

Method.

Fry the onion in the butter for 5 minutes, not browning, stir in the flour until smooth, add the milk, and stir until it thickens, add the nuts, seasonings, and 1 egg. Mix well with a wooden spoon, and stand aside to cool. Mould into cutlet shapes, dip in beaten egg, and roll in dry breadcrumbs, fry a golden brown in Nutter Suet (see instructions for frying in Recipe 14) and serve overlapping each other round a dish, with the centre filled with chipped potatoes, peas or piped mashed potatoes. Serve with Béchamel Sauce (Recipe 60) and one green vegetable.

18. Pinekernel Roast.

Ingredients :

- 8 oz. Pinekernels grated through a nut mill.
- 8 oz. white or brown Breadcrumbs.
- 2 Eggs.
- 2 oz. Butter.
- 6 leaves of Celery and 1 small Onion, minced fine.
- Pinch of chopped Parsley.
- Pepper and Salt to taste.

Method :

Fry the vegetables and parsley in the butter for 10 minutes, mix in a bowl with the other ingredients; this should make a stiff paste, if too dry add a teaspoonful of milk. Shape into a roll, and roll in well-greased grease-proof paper, screw up the ends and bake in a moderately hot oven $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours, or until done ; serve with green vegetables and brown gravy, or Cranberry sauce. Fry the vegetables in the butter for 10 minutes, then mix all the ingredients together in a bowl; this should be very moist. Well grease out some small dariole moulds or a plain oval charlotte mould, and fill with mixture. Steam for one hour covered with greased paper, or they may be cooked in an oven standing in boiling water 3 parts up the sides of the moulds, but well covered with greased paper and a baking sheet. These should be served with celery sauce, a green vegetable and chip potatoes.

20. Pinekernel Quenelles.

Pepper and Salt.

Method :

Peel and mince the shallots and mushrooms. The Pinekernels should be put on a baking tin, and browned in a slow oven, then put through a nut grating mill (price 1/6 from any Health Food Stores), the pieces of stale brown bread should be put in the oven to dry, and then put through the nut mill. Mix all the ingredients into a stiff paste, shape into Quenelle shapes, brush over with egg and roll in breadcrumbs and fry a golden brown. (Instructions for frying see Recipe 14). Serve with onion sauce or Béchamel Sauce, green vegetables and roast potatoes.

Ingredients :

1 pint of clear Vegetable Soup (Recipe 7).

12 strands of Agar-Agar.

8 oz. Nutmeat (Recipes 13 or 18).

Any variety of diced Vegetables.

Method :

Rinse out with cold water some fancy dariole moulds, line the bottom with some fancy cut cooked vegetables, next put a layer of thinly-sliced nutmeat, then a layer of vegetables, and alternate layers until the moulds are well packed. Boil the soup with the Agar-Agar gently for 10 to 15 minutes until the Agar-Agar is quite dissolved, then fill up the moulds with jelly and stand aside for an hour to set. Serve with a nice border of assorted green salad with halves of tomatoes and fancy shapes of cooked beetroot.

Note.—Agar - Agar is so strong only a very little is needed. The best way is to soak and wash a few strands, and when they are swollen out they are more easy to count. I find 12 strands about 10 inches long will set a pint of jelly, cream, or custard.

The rice should be well washed and cooked in just sufficient water to cover it 20 minutes or until just tender.
